PRESS RELEASE
Construction Update

IL 127 in Clinton County

IL 127 Structure over Kaskaskia River south of Carlyle, IL – The Illinois Department of Transportation announces that the Contractor on the project has encountered fabrication issues with the new bridge expansion joints causing a delay in the completion of the structure. This work is expected to be completed and IL 127 reopened to traffic in January of 2015, depending on weather. A marked detour route utilizing Slant Road and IL 161 will remain in place. The Department suggests the traveling public follow detour signs and drive with caution.

The contractor on this project is Sangamo Construction Company of Springfield, IL. If you have any questions concerning this project, please contact Steve Putz, Supervising Field Engineer for the Illinois Department of Transportation, at (618) 346-3350.
